Cruise highlights

Antigua

Boasting one of the Caribbean's most spectacular coastlines, the island's rolling hills are dotted with stone sugar mills, relics from the bygone era. Visit historic Nelson's Dockyard and St. John's, the island's bustling capital, offering a wealth of boutiques, restaurants and pubs.

St. Kitts

British and French heritage is evident on both islands. Basseterre, the capital, boasts fine, restored colonial buildings. Brimstone Hill Fortress, called the "Gibraltar of the West Indies," is one of the most impressive historic landmarks in the Caribbean.

St. Thomas

This American paradise is popular for its beaches, including the stunning Magens Bay, named one of the "World's Best Beaches" by National Geographic magazine. But not just its beaches entice, try hand feeding string rays or touring Blackbeard's Castle.
